

The Truro Historical Society

Highland House Museum

Although the museum is closed for the season, our work continues at the Cobb Archive. We are planning, researching, and collecting artifacts and information for the exhibits and programs that all will enjoy when the museum reopens in June of 2014. As always, we strive to present a variety of exhibits during the summer season that will offer something of interest for everyone. This winter we're asking for your help with some special projects to be presented next season. Participating in our off-season planning is a great way to get involved with the THS to help uncover the mysteries of Truro's past. So open up your heart, your mind, and your attic. You may have something stashed away that could reveal another story line to Truro's rich and colorful history.

Logo Contest WIN $250

In an ongoing effort to improve the Truro Historical Society in every way, our Board members have decided that it is time for an official THS logo. We will be sponsoring a competition open to the community for an original logo design. A prize of $250 will be awarded to the winner. The postmark deadline for entries is March 5, 2014, or entries may be delivered to the Cobb Archive no later than 3:00 PM, Wednesday, March 5, 2014. Digital design entries in PDF or JPEG format may be emailed to director@trurohistorical.org. The finished design of all entries can be no larger than 8"x 8". Please include your contact information: name, mailing address, phone number, and email address.

The winning design will be announced in the April 2014 issue of the Truro eNewsletter. A celebration of our new logo will be held on opening day of the 2014 season at the Highland House Museum with t-shirts, caps and other merchandise featuring the new Truro Historical Society brand.

Our THS Volunteers

Volunteering with the THS is a great way to learn about Truro's long and colorful history! As a volunteer at the Highland House Museum, you receive a free membership in the THS and meet hundreds of new and interesting people. The historical facts that you will learn about Truro will make you love it even more. Three and a half hours a week at the museum is a small price to pay for all the benefits. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer for the 2014 season, contact Joan Marshall, Volunteer Coordinator, or BJ Dyche, Museum Director at 508-349-0200, or email director@trurohistorical.org.
