

The Truro Historical Society

The Truro Historical Society would like to wish everyone a Happy New Year!

Dear Friends,

The response to the THS Annual Appeal launched in December has been wonderful. But there are still many of you that we have not heard from. Your donations are essential to our being able to care for the objects, art and photographs given to the Historical Society by the residents and friends of Truro. Although the Highland House Museum is closed for the season, the staff and board members of the Historical Society spend the winter months at the Cobb Archive preparing for the upcoming summer season. We need your support to develop exhibits and events for the entertainment and education of our members and guests, not to mention the ongoing expenses of daily operations such as office supplies, insurance, utilities and security for both facilities plus the salaries of our staff. We appreciate your assistance in every way. Please send your tax deductible donations to:

THS
PO Box 486
Truro, MA 02666

Or make an online donation at trurohistorical.org.

Thank you for your generous gifts.

LAST CALL FOR RECIPES

We'll be collecting recipes from Truro cooks for the Truro Historical Society Cookbook through January. We have received a fantastic assortment of recipes and some great stories to go along with them, but we still need more. This cookbook will be a collection of recipes, stories about Truro, and old photographs celebrating the gastronomic experience. The cookbook will be published this spring and will be launched during the 2012 summer season. Don't miss your opportunity to be part of this wonderful salute to the best cooks in the world.....Truro cooks.
