All Day Truro Historical Cooking Event

June 30, Saturday, 10:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m.

“Antique Cookware” – Special exhibition of our collection of cookware dating from the late 1700's through the mid-20th century, and showing the evolution of various items over the ages. Runs until 1:00 p.m. on August 3rd.

A Little Taste of Truro (4:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.) – For $10.00, sample some of the enticing recipes in our new cookbook. We'll furnish you with a plate, utensils, and a soft drink. You choose the dishes you'd like to try. Beer and wine are extra.

Cookbook – Celebrate the release of our new cookbook, Truro Cooks. Features favorite Truro recipes, many of which are handed down from some of the oldest families in Truro. Includes historical photographs, a special section on popular turn-of-the-century recipes from before the invention of modern stoves, and interesting vignettes of Truro history. Truro Cooks sells for $20.00 and is a “must” for cookbook enthusiasts.

Congratulations Carolyn Rand Herron.

Carolyn named our cookbook, Truro Cooks, and for her clever title, she will receive a free cookbook.
