

The TRURO GROUP
A community of Artists

The Truro Group, founded in 2006 by artists Joan Pereira and Ed Yaconetti, provides artists a venue, with events and shows, to display work in a public space. Over the past six years, Truro Group artists have presented hundreds of pieces in a wide variety of media. The current membership is over 50 artists and is continually growing. The Truro Group is based on the goal to advance the arts in Truro. Two shows are held each year in June and September. There is no annual fee to join the Truro Group. Members pay to participate in shows.

The next Truro Group show will be displayed at the Truro Public Library. The opening is June 3, from 2-4 PM and the exhibition runs through the month of June.
