

Truro Central School PUMA PAGE

October 2012

This month, members of a multi-age second and third grade Language Arts group called Read, Write, Think proudly bring you the captions for our Puma Page features.

Farm to School Lunch

Every Thursday is Farm to School Lunch Day at Truro Central School. Local produce and meats are featured on a farm-fresh menu.

Picking out a delicious meal of Farm to School treats!

Baba Ghanoush made from egg plants from Hillside Farms.

Some yummy food like dill pickles from Ms. Klimkosky's garden.

Salad bar foods from the salad bar like Truro organic carrots from Simone & Violet's farm.

Second graders get ready to eat.

The B.F.G. ~ Reader's Theatre

Third Graders have been listening to Roald Dahl's The B.F.G. (The Big Friendly Giant) during their daily read aloud. After finishing this "scrumdiddilyumptious" book, they performed Reader's Theatre excerpts for their families and the First and Second graders.

This scene is about "Frobscottle" and "Wizzpoppers".

This scene features the Queen of England.
