

TRURO PUBLIC LIBRARY NEWS

A Special Evening with Sebastian Junger.

Wednesday, August 28

6:30 p.m.

Join us for a screening and discussion of his film,

Which Way Is the Front Line from Here?:

The Life and Time of Tim Hetherington.

Tickets are $20.

and will benefit both the Truro Library and RISC (Reporters Instructed in Saving Colleagues).

Please call (508) 487-1125 for more information.

Please note: This program will be held at Truro's Payomet Tent.

The Truro Library is now on Facebook. If you like us, then please "like" us.

Susan Brehant's art work will be on display in the Anne H. Brock Community Room during August.

Will Oxtoby's photographs are on display on the Lower Level of the Library.

The Library offers 24/7 WiFi access that can be enjoyed from the back deck or from one of the seating areas around the building.

Friends of the Truro Library are putting their efforts behind a truly creative fund-raising idea--

Give a Book an Alter Ego! Works of art that were fashioned from re-purposed books are displayed in the Library and are waiting for your bids. Call 508-487-1125 for more information.

If you are desperate for a book and you know that the Library is closed, we have something for you. We have a re-purposed bird-feeder in front of the Library that the Friends of the Truro Library will keep stocked with a small selection of books. Help yourself, read it, and pass it on.
