January 2013

Welcome Winter! January brought the New Year and an arctic blast to Truro. The cold temperatures haven't slowed us down! Take a look at Bedtime Stories in the Book Nook and the Winter Concert as well as a preview of the 5th and 6th Grade's upcoming Zumba Fundraiser.

Tell Me A Bedtime Story

Have you ever heard of Mo Willems? Ask any Preschooler or Kindergartener from T.C.S. and they will tell you he is one fabulous author. Mo's unforgettable characters include Pigeon, Duckling, Knuffle Bunny, Piggie and Elephant. The characters and their stories were the inspiration behind this year's "Bedtime Stories in the Book Nook" program.

Preschool and Kindergarten students and their families were invited to join their teachers Lynne Ready and Nina Picariello and Media Specialist Stacey Klimkosky for an evening of fun in their pajamas. Activities included a Duckling Bean Bag Toss, Dancing with Piggie and Elephant on the SmartBoard, an activity booklet, cookie match game and a cream cheese and crackers snack inspired by one of our favorite Mo Willems stories—Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus!

Thanks to the T.C.S. CPC and Title I program for a fun evening!

Making Beautiful Music at the Winter Concert

The annual Winter Concert warmed our hearts on a frigid January evening. Students in grades Kindergarten through 6 took us on a musical journey. Thanks to music teacher Mary Abt!

Coming Friday, February 8th ...ZUMBATHON!

Zumba, the high energy, dance-inspired exercise sensation, has invaded Truro Central School. On Friday, February 8th from 6 to 8pm, join us for ZUMBATHON!—a fundraiser to benefit the 5th and 6th grade trips to Boston and Washington DC this coming spring.

A preview was unveiled at the January All-School Meeting.
