

The Truro Cultural Council would like to invite the general public to a reception/gathering at the Truro Public Library on Tuesday, January 28 at 6 pm.

Not only will there be a presentation of this year's grant recipients describing their projects, but prospective applicants for the October 2014 deadline may wish to attend and learn how to apply. Light refreshments will be available.

GRANTEES FOR THE TRURO CULTURAL COUNCIL 2014 CYCLE:

Truro Concert Committee Truro Concerts on the Green: A much-anticipated summer entertainment venue, celebrating its 20th consecutive year!

Pamet After School / Truro Recreation Enrichment Projects in Art and Culture: A program that provides cultural and artistic activities to our school aged children.

Truro Children's Community Garden Education Artistic and educational activities related to gardening, healthful eating and community.

Truro Public Library The Jester of Notre Dame: Presenting Alexander, an authentic medieval fool. Entertainment for all ages!

Truro Center for the Arts at Castle Hill Outer Cape Juried Invitational Art Exhibition: Selected works of art from Truro, Wellfleet and Provincetown artists will be juried and exhibited at the art center's main gallery.

Mass Audubon / Wellfleet Bay Wildlife Sanctuary Discover Shorebirds and tracking Turtles in Truro. Two free, public environmental programs led by Mass Audubon Naturalists will be held in Truro at Ballston Beach and at Corn Hill Beach.

Cape Cod Repertory Theater, Inc. "I Wish You a Waltz," A musical revue by the Bluestone Group, an outreach group, will be performed for Truro seniors.

Cultural Center of Cape Cod Rise and Shine Project: This group sends artists into public schools, libraries, and other organizations to help at-risk youth demonstrate confidence and creative expression.

Elizabeth Bradfield / Broadside Press Words + Art: Broadside Press Exhibit and Workshop. A workshop and exhibit that celebrates the collaborative power of poetry and visual art.

Kenneth Hawkey, Chair
Truro Cultural Council