

TOWN OF TRURO

STAFF UPDATE

In the past few months, we have filled a number of permanent positions within the Town of Truro with some familiar faces and some new faces. Below are some of our newest appointments:

Cally Harper: Town Planner

Cally comes to us from the Cape Cod Commission where she served as Planner/Coastal Resilience Specialist and Wilkinson Ecological Design where she served as Project Manager. She was appointed as Town Planner in September.

Emily Beebe: Conservation/Health Agent

Emily previously served as the Interim Conservation/ Health Agent and the Assistant Conservation/Health Agent with the Town since January 2016 and prior to that she served as Field Inspector for the Conservation/ Health Department. She was appointed as the Conservation/ Health Agent in November.

Arozana Davis: Assistant Conservation/Health Agent

Arozana ("Zana") previously served as the Office Assistant for the Building and Health/Conservation Departments but as of March 1st assumes her new post as Assistant Conservation/Health Agent. She has worked for the Town since 2005.

Michelle Fogarty: Office Assistant for the Building and Health/Conservation Departments

In January, Michelle began her work for the Building and Health/Conservation Departments as a part-time Office Assistant after years of work as a legal assistant and most recently, as a real estate title examiner.

TOWN OF TRURO

STAFF UPDATE

...continued

Damion Clements: Recreation & Beach Director

Damion previously served as the Interim Recreation & Beach Director and the Assistant Recreation & Beach Director with the Town of Truro since 2008. He began his new post in September.

Erica Nunes: Assistant Recreation & Beach Director

Erica previously served as the Assistant Program Supervisor for the Pamet After-School program within the Recreation & Beach Department since 2015 and provided additional office assistance for the department periodically throughout her tenure. She began her new position in February.

Katherine Paradise: Office Assistant for the Council on Aging and Recreation & Beach Department

Katherine began working for the Town of Truro in January after years of non-profit and corporate office work. Her new role serves both departments that are housed at the Truro Community Center—the Council on Aging and Recreation & Beach Department.

Shawn Grunwald: Transportation Coordinator/ Program & Benefits Administrator (Council on Aging)

Shawn most recently served as Secretary for the Town of Chatham Council on Aging and as a Recording Secretary for the Town of Truro Planning Board prior to assuming her role in the Truro Council on Aging in December.

