

Castle Hill Artists-In-Residence Studio Walkthroughs

All studio walkthroughs will take place at 3 Edgewood Way in the Barn from 4-6pm and are FREE community events. The walkthroughs are an opportunity for the community to see the work our residents have been creating while at Edgewood Farm.

December 6th Studio Walkthrough

Featuring the work of Heather Blume, Catherine Headrick and Caitlin Plante

Castle Hill Holiday Bash

Friday, December 14th from 6pm – 9pm.
Edgewood Farm, 3 Edgewood Way Truro

We will celebrate the warmth of the Cape community as the winter season approaches while we honor Emily Beebe, Jarrod Cabral and the Musnuff Family.

Join us in raising a glass and celebrating these unsung heroes. Tickets to the winter party are $25 per person. Come and enjoy delicious locally-made soup from Cosmos Catering and receive your own one-of-a-kind, handmade ceramic mug by Ceramic Program Director Chris Watt to take home.

During the party we will have a silent auction where you will be able to bid on original artwork that will make great gifts for the holiday. You can finish all of your holiday shopping! DJ Matty Dread from WOMR, the Soul Funky Train DJ will keep the music going, so you can dance the night away.

Purchase tickets Here!

Meet the Potter's Wheel: Beginner and Mixed Level

with Paul Wisotzky

9 A.M. - 12 P.M.

January 24 – February 7

Visit this link to sign up!

Whether you're just meeting the potter's wheel, renewing an old friendship or building upon existing skills, this class is for you. Through a mix of demonstration and one-on-one teaching, we'll cover basic wheel skills as well as focused attention on a variety of forms and functions. Class curriculum is also driven by each student's interest with opportunities to introduce more advanced techniques and projects as a group or individually.

Paul Wisotzky is a potter and teacher working out of his studio Blueberry Lane Pottery in Truro, Massachusetts. Paul makes pottery that is for everyday use. Whether it's a treasured favorite mug for the first cup of coffee or a vase for flowers that brightens any room, he strives to make each piece a pleasure to hold and behold. Paul works in porcelain and stoneware and fires in reduction and soda atmospheres. Paul has been a winter resident and studio/technical assistant at the Penland School of Crafts. He has also served as a studio assistant at the Haystack Mountain School of Crafts.

Wednesday Clay

with Chris Watt

9 A.M. - 12 P.M.

February 13 – March 20

Visit this link to sign up!

Wednesday Clay is an exciting session that is designed to expose students to both wheel throwing and handbuilding techniques based around pottery making. Demonstrations will vary between handbuilding and wheel throwing depending on class dynamic and interest. All classes include two free open-studio days between Monday - Friday, 10am - 4pm.

Christopher Watt recently completed his Master of Fine Arts degree at Utah State University in Logan, Utah. Prior to his graduate degree, he received a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Nova Scotia College of Art and Design University in Halifax, Canada and a three-year diploma in Art, Craft and Design from Kootenay School of the Arts at Selkirk College in Nelson, British Columbia, Canada. Structured within a practice-based discipline, Christopher's work involves the procedures of wheel-thrown ceramics, atmospheric-firing conditions and locally sourced glazes. Selected accolades include the 2018 Graduate Student Instructor of the Year Award from the Caine College of the Arts at Utah State University. Artist residencies at the Centre for Ceramics Berlin (Germany) and the Banff Centre for the Arts (Canada).

13th International Encaustic Conference

with Keynote Speaker Judy Pfaff

May 31- June 2, 2019

$475 Early Bird Rate through November 23

An annual interdisciplinary event in Provincetown, MA, bringing a community of artists together with gallerists, curators, critics and collectors engaged with wax, printmaking, mixed media, professional practices and more. The 13th International Encaustic Conference is directed by Cherie Mittenenthal and produced by Truro Center for the Arts at Castle Hill.

Pre Conference Workshops take place May 28-30 and

Post Conference Workshops take place from June 3-6.

They are taught by faculty such as Michael David, Jeffrey Hirst, Joanne Mattera, Dietlind Vander Schaaf, Pat Spainhour, Judy Pfaff and many more!

Sign up TODAY, workshops are already filling up!