GALLERY OPENING: INSTALLATION WORK BY SALVATORE FIUMARA & TETSUNORI KAWANA

Thursday, August 15th

4pm–6pm

10 Meetinghouse Road, Truro, MA

Tetsunori Kawana gives his large scale bamboo work the theme of “Passage” which derives from the Japanese word “dou” or “michi” which means “way” or “road”.

Fiumara’s abstract drawings and paintings reflect his passion for working big and freely. He is largely inspired by the experimental artwork he grew up seeing in Provincetown.

ARTIST TALK WITH TETSUNORI KAWANA

Tuesday, August 13th

6pm–8pm

Wellfleet Preservation Hall

335 Main Street, Wellfleet, MA

Tetsunori is an award-winning installation artist and teacher at the Sogestu school in Tokyo Japan. For over 30 years, he has conducted Ikebana seminars and demonstrations at major conventions and institutions around the world!
