

Did you know that ALL the artifacts displayed at the Highland House Museum were donated from local homes, attics, and basements - such as the bureau in our Lady's Bedroom? This beautiful piece was donated by Kay and John Musnuff (pictured here) when their home on Ballston Beach became the victim of erosion.

Please consider donating your family's treasures to the Truro Historical Society by contacting director@trurohistoricalsociety.org. Thank you!

Please visit our website to learn more about the Truro Historical Society's activities: www.trurohistoricalsociety.org. While you're there, you also can subscribe to our email updates, make a donation, or become a 2020 Member.

Thanks for your support of the Truro Historical Society, which manages the Highland House Museum and the Cobb Archive!